

CRAZY QUESADILLA Saves the Day!

Dr. Cook had been working hard in the food lab, trying to create the perfect burrito.

After hours of work, he grew impatient and started throwing every ingredient he could find into the burrito.

The burrito got bigger and bigger. All of the random ingredients were causing a bad reaction!

The burrito came to life before his eyes!

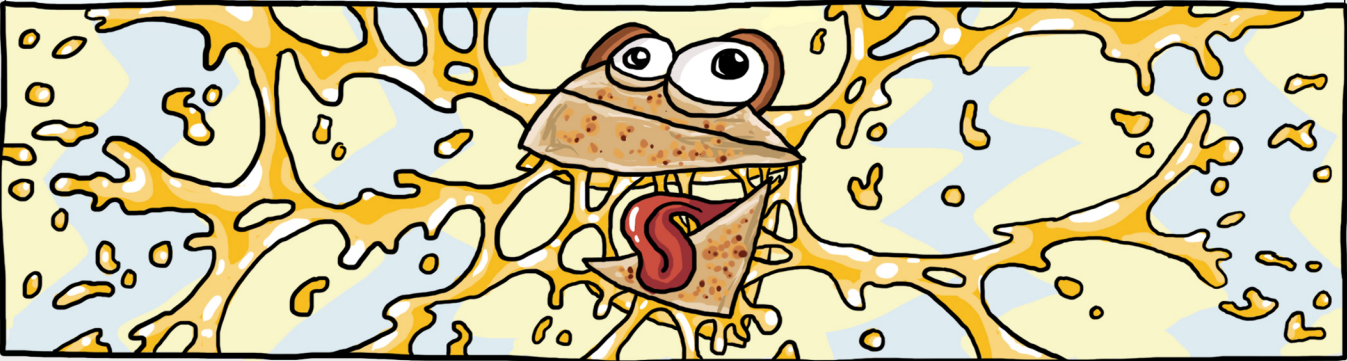

Evil Burrito started eating everything in sight. Dr. Cook knew he had to act fast to stop Evil Burrito.

What do I do!?!?

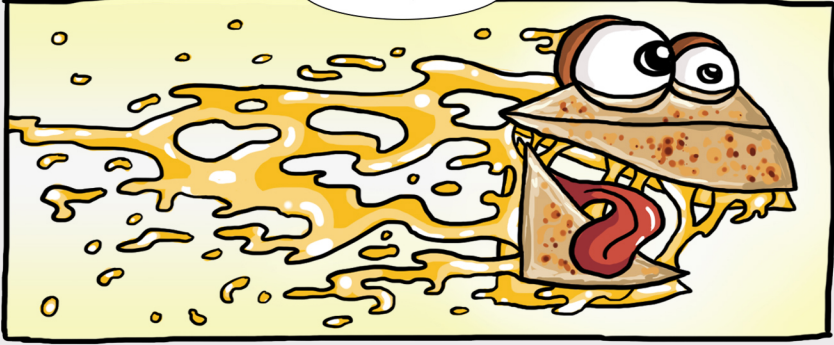

He thought and thought and finally had an idea. If he couldn't create the perfect burrito, maybe he could create the perfect quesadilla! He quickly mixed up just the right ingredients, and with a final garnish of love, Crazy Quesadilla was born!

Crazy Quesadilla, I need your help!

I'm on it, Doc!

Using all of his might, Crazy Quesadilla defeated Evil Burrito!

Justice was served with a side of chips! It turns out Crazy Quesadilla was what Dr. Cook had been looking for all along.
